OUR WOUNDED IN REBEL HOSPITALS.
Private John Webb, of the 146th New York volunteers, who was slightly wounded and captured in one of the Wilderness battles, arrived here yesterday, having effected his escape from the rebel hospital at Robinson's Tavern. He says there are over three hundred wounded in the latter place, who are suffering from the want of proper attention and nourishment. Amputations in consequence have ceased, and our men are dying off rapidly. Surgeon O'Donnell, of the 2d Pennsylvania Reserve, is in charge of the hospital, assisted by two other regimental doctors.

Our wounded, as soon as they are able to limp about, and in many instances before, are marched off to Richmond.

NOTICE.

A FEW days since my house, about five miles northwest of London, Tenn., was entered in the day time by three soldiers belonging to the command stationed at London, and robbed of between $200 and $500 in old bank money, and also two pocket books containing notes and receipt of various persons—the notes amounting to some $2,000 or $2,500. This, therefore, to notify all persons not to trade for any note presented to them, or which I hold at the time of said robbery—among which was a note executed to Aaron Connerly by Jesse Matlock for about $200—and also to notify all persons on whom I hold notes—not to pay any or either of them—except the payment be made to myself.

THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY OFFERS FOR SALE ONE MILLION ACRES OF SUPERIOR FARMING LANDS At from $8 to $12 per Acre.

In tracts of forty acres and upward, for cash or on credit, adjacent to its line of Railroad, which is 704 miles in length, extending from Chicago, on Lake Michigan, and Dunleith, in the Northwest, to Cairo, in the extreme Southern part of the State.

Illinois.
Extending 280 miles from North to South, Illinois has all the diversity of climate to be found between Massachusetts and Virginia, and varieties of soil adapted to the products of New England and those of the Middle States. The black soil in the central portions of the State is the richest known, and produces the finest corn, wheat, sorghum and hay, which latter crop, during the past year, has been highly remunerative. The seedling of these prairie lands to tame grasses, for pasturage, offers to farmers with capital the most profitable route. The smaller prairies, interspersed with timber, in the more Southern portion of the State, produce the best of winter wheat, tobacco, flax, hemp and fruit. The lands still further South are heavily timbered, and here the raising of fruit, tobacco, cotton and the manufacture of lumber yield large returns. The health of Illinois is hardly surpassed by any State in the Union.

The Farms Offered for Sale.
The Illinois Central Railroad Lands are all situated within fifteen miles of its Road, and extend the whole length of the State from North to South. For all purposes of agriculture they cannot be excelled. The farms are sold in tracts of forty or eighty acres, suited to the settler with small means, or in larger tracts for the capitalist or stock raiser. The low prices at which they are sold offer great inducements for a purchase at this time, and it is not surprising that the sales the past year have been so large, amounting to $3,310,000 for $2,500,000.

Grain and Stock Raising.
In the list of corn and wheat producing States, Illinois stands pre-eminently first. Its advantages for raising cattle and hogs are too well known to require comment here. For sheep raising, the lands in every part of the State are well adapted, and Illinois can now boast of many of the largest flocks in the country. No branch of industry offers greater inducements for investment.

Hemp, Flax and Tobacco.
Hemp and flax can be produced of as good quality as any grown in Europe. Tobacco of the finest quality is raised upon lands purchased of the Company, and it promises to be one of the most important crops of the State. Cotton, too, is raised, to a considerable extent, in the Southern portion. The making of sugar from the beet is receiving considerable attention, and experiments upon a large scale have been made during the past season. The cultivation of sorghum is rapidly increasing, and there are numerous indications that in many years Illinois will produce a large surplus of sugar and molasses for exportation.

Fruit.
The central and Southern parts of the State are peculiarly adapted to fruit raising; and peaches, pears and strawberries, together with early vegetables, are sent to Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati, as well as other markets, and always command a ready sale.

Coal and Minerals.
The immense coal deposits of Illinois are worked at different points near the Railroad, and the great resources of the State in iron, lead, zinc, limestone, potash, &c., &c., as yet barely touched, will eventually be the source of great wealth.

Lumber.
Is purchased at a low price in Chicago—lower than in any other great market of the United States—and there are a large number of saw-mills erected near the line of the Railroad in the Southern part of the State, so that there is no difficulty in procuring building materials, and at prices lower than in almost any other part of the country.

To Actual Settlers.
The inducements offered are so great that the Company has already sold 1,500,000 acres, and the sales during the past year have been to a larger number of purchasers than ever before. The advantages to a man of small means, settling in Illinois, where his children may grow up with all the benefits of education and the best of public schools, can hardly be over-estimated. No State in the Union is increasing more rapidly in population, which has trebled in ten years along the line of this Railroad.

Prices and Terms of Payment.
The price of lands varies from $7 to $12 and upward per acre, and they are sold on long credit, on short credit, or for cash. A deduction of ten per cent. from the long credit price is made to those who make a payment of one-fourth of the principal down, and the balance in one, two and three years. A deduction of twenty per cent. is made to those who purchase for cash. Never before have greater inducements been offered to cash purchasers.

EXAMPLE.
Forty acres at $10 per acre on long credit, interest at six per cent., payable annually in advance; the principal in four, five, six and seven years.

Cash payment	INTEREST	PRINCIPAL
Payment in one year.....	$4.00	$24.00
" two years.....	8.00	24.00
" three years.....	12.00	24.00
" four years.....	16.00	24.00
" five years.....	20.00	24.00
" six years.....	24.00	24.00
" seven years.....	28.00	24.00

The same Farm may be purchased for $320 in cash.

Full information on all points, together with maps, showing the exact location of the lands, will be furnished on application in person or by letter to

Land Commissioner,

Farm for Sale.

I OFFER for sale my farm on Little Nine Mile Creek, in the lower end of Blount county, containing 255 acres, of which 130 are cleared. About 60 acres are set in clover. Most of the fences have been reset within the last two or three years. There are three dwelling houses, three strong springs, and a fine young orchard on the place. Also, a good barn and abundance of stable room.

There is also a valuable water power of seventeen feet fall, fed by never-failing springs, which can be laid on to a wheel by a race cut entirely on the place without any back water or dam to interfere with neighboring property.

A change of place, induced by a change of times, is all my reason for selling.</
